Right of erasure:

You may have the right to erase personal information that we have on file if for example you no longer want to apply for a position with our client.

Third Party / Onward Transfers:

Applicant Insight discloses personal data only to third party vendors who need such data for background screening and not for other purposes. Such recipients must agree to abide to Ai confidentiality agreements. In the cases of onward transfer of data, Applicant Insight may have liability unless it proves it was not responsible for the event leading to the damage.

Applicant Insight may provide personal data to third parties that act as agents to perform tasks on behalf of Ai for criminal background checks. Such agents agree to use the data only for background screening and must comply with the Data Privacy Framework principles for transfer and processing of the personal data.

Right to object / restrict processing:

You may have the right to request that Applicant Insight stop processing your personal information.

If you would like to exercise any of the above rights, please go to our website <https://www.applicantinsight.com/Support> so that we may assist with your request. To protect your privacy and security, we need to verify your identity before complying with the request. Applicant Insight has no direct relationship with our clients' customers or any third-party who may process personal information on behalf of a client. An individual who seeks access, or who seeks to correct, amend, delete inaccurate data or withdraw consent for further contact should direct his or her query to the company applied to. If our client requests Applicant Insight to remove the data, we will respond to its request within thirty (30) days. Ai will delete, amend or block access to any personal information that we are storing only if a written request to do so is submitted from our client or the applicant unless we have a legal obligation to retain such personal information. We reserve the right to retain a copy of such data for archiving purposes, or to defend our rights in litigation if necessary.

International transfers of information:

Personal information, including information collected in the European Economic Area ("EEA"), may be transferred, stored, and processed by Applicant Insight and our service providers in the United States and potentially other regions (i.e. Puerto Rico / Canada) whose data protection laws may be different to the Data Privacy Framework requirements.

We will not transfer personal information originating in the EU to third parties unless the third parties have entered into an agreement in writing with Ai to provide at least the same level of privacy protection to your personal information as required by the Principles of the EU-US Data Privacy Framework
Changes to this Privacy Policy

Applicant Insight may update this Privacy Policy periodically in response to changing business developments. We encourage you to review this Privacy Policy frequently to be informed of how Applicant Insight is protecting your information.

Right to disclose personal information when required by law

Applicant Insight may require disclosing personal information in response to lawful requests by public authorities, including to meet national security or law enforcement requirements
